BREAKS DOWN AFTER SAVING THE THRONE.

Amelie Refuses to Leave Bodies of Her Dead, and May Go Mad.

Single-Handed She Overthrows Franco, the Dictator, and Saves Portugal from Bloody Revolution, Then Collapses—Entire Staff of Court Physicians Attend Her. Troops Guard Capital from Revolt.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

LISBON (Portugal) Feb. 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Queen Amelie is generally regarded as the savior of Portugal from the shock of the assassination of King Carlos and Crown Prince Luis Philippe.

The entire staff of court physicians has been called in attendance in efforts to quiet the overstrung nerves and brain of the Queen.

Meanwhile, troops are stationed everywhere today to guard the city from revolt.

Since the bodies of her late husband and son were embalmed and taken to the Palace Des Necessaries, the Queen has refused to leave them and weeps without cessation at the two biers. Her attendants have hardly been able to persuade her to eat, and complete mental collapse is hourly feared.

But it is only in the last twenty-four hours that the Queen has broken down.

A QUEEN INDEED.

Putting aside her grief, forgetting her widowhood and that her first-born son was lost to her, the Queen in her agony of grief proved herself a Queen indeed, in the supreme crisis that followed the assassination.

While her spouse and her offspring lay before her, this queenly woman, at the most single-handed, overthrew Franco, the dictator, of whom King Carlos was the puppet and saved the shaking dynasty.

It promises well for the progress of human liberty that Amelie, daughter of a long line of tyrannous Capets, has opposed tyranny with all her love for her surviving son, with all her affection for a people who are suffering.

These are no mere words or empty phrases. It may be said, authoritatively, that Queen Amelie, who offered her body as a shield against the assassin's bullets, who struck at them vainly with the fragile flowers she carried, struck at Franco with the steel of right.

CONTROLS BOY KING.

The Queen alone had the courage and self-possession to check the impulses of ambition and the tumult of conflicting parties, to force the boy king to reject Franco's specious advice.

For the dictator had planned to pervert in his dictatorial policy in respect even if he had to appeal to foreign powers to uphold his hands.

Queen Amelie has deflected Franco's policy. Having been in England recently, she knew that King Edward and several foreign governments considered Franco's course unwise, and likely to alienate sympathies and loyalty even of the political parties that support the dynasty.

PORTUGAL CRISIS.

King Manuel headed his mother's advice, which was supported by his grandmother, Queen Maria Pia, and the majority of the privy council. Franco and all his ministers resigned and the striking episode, which must become historic, ended.

Since the bodies of her late husband and son were embalmed and taken to the Palace Des Necessaries, the Queen has refused to leave them and weeps without cessation at the two biers. Her attendants have hardly been able to persuade her to eat, and complete mental collapse is hourly feared.

A QUEEN INDEED.

has drawn to it a strong supporting movement. During the night Admiral do Amaral and the chiefs of the monarchist parties held a protracted session, and laid out a programme looking to the pacification of the people.

BRITISH FLEET COMING.
Word has been received here that a British fleet, the number of the vessels not being stated, passed Oporto this morning, bound for Lisbon.

The investigations of the police show that the murders were carefully planned. On Saturday the assassins met secretly in the back room of a cafe, and there laid out every step of the plot, which they were enabled to do, as all the details relating to the kidnapping of the King had been made public. To each was assigned a post in the work of shooting down the members of the royal family, but lots were drawn for the selection of each participant. Those who drew Queen Amelia and Prince Manuel failed to carry out their bloody task. The chapter in the palace where the bodies of King Carlos and the Crown Prince were laid out in mourning and arranged to resemble a chapel. The heirs are surrounded by lighted candles, and Queen Amelia, the Dowager-Queen Maria Pia, wife and mother of the late King, watch constantly at the sides of their dead.

The body of the dead King is clothed in the uniform of the commander-in-chief of the army, and his son is clad in the uniform of the chief of the Lisbon police. The funeral will be held February 10 and the bodies will lie in state, probably beginning tomorrow. It is expected the funeral will be attended by the Prince of Wales, Prince of Asturias, Duke of Braganza, Duke of Beaufort, Duke of Aosta, a cousin of King Emmanuel, a special French embassy and detachments of the foreign regiments of the late King was in Lisbon.

QUEEN'S CONDITION BETTER.
The condition of Queen Amelia, contrary to rumors, is relatively good. The Duke of Oporto, brother of the late King, has established his residence at the palace, where he will remain for some time. The Countess of Paris, Queen Amelia's mother, is on her way here.

Charles Pagan Bryan, the American Minister to Portugal, was the first diplomat to offer condolence to the royal family.

Little by little Lisbon is regaining its normal aspect, although all the public buildings and the palace are still surrounded by cordons of soldiers and detachments of the municipal guard. A number of the newspapers of the city have been suspended publication.

Arrests are being made by the whole police in Lisbon and all suspicious persons still at liberty are under police surveillance. The Portugal frontier is being closely guarded to prevent the escape of suspects. The authorities are maintaining a strict censorship on all outgoing telegraphic messages.

It was established today that Bulcão, one of the regicides, was a widower with a daughter aged 7 and a son only a few months old. The newspaper Noticias says one of the regicides who was killed was a Spaniard, who was taken into custody recently in connection with the discovery of a deposit of bombs, but he was later released. One of the men now under arrest is an Italian who played in the orchestra of a theater in Lisbon. This man is in an extreme condition of hysteria. The food in the prison is served him without knives or forks for fear he will kill himself.

NEW CABINET.

FRANCO REGIME COMES TO END.

PREMIER AND ENTIRE CABINET TENDER RESIGNATION.

New Ministry is Formed Under the Presidency of Admiral de Amalal, and it is Liberal With Monarchist Tendencies. Chief of Dictatorship Promises Political Tranquillity.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.) LISBON, Feb. 3.—Portugal today saw the establishment of a new regime.

Franco resigned office and within forty-eight hours of the assassination of King Carlos his dictatorship came to an end, at least for the present. Franco resigned for fear that his continuance in office would plunge the country into rebellion. The Premier has been considered directly responsible for the political turmoil which resulted in the assassination of the King, and his withdrawal from power is regarded as holding a promise of political tranquillity.

A new Cabinet has been formed under the presidency of Admiral de Amalal, a member of the Progressist-Disident party. Some of the new ministers have notably been opposed to the rule of Franco, but on the whole the present Cabinet is liberal, with monarchist tendencies.

The opening session of the new council was held today, and the young monarch, King Emanuel II, placed himself in the hands of his ministers. He appeared before them in a voice shaken with emotion, said: "I am yet without experience either in politics or in the government of a country, and I place myself entirely in your hands, needing and believing in your patriotism and wisdom."

The general opinion here is that there will be a modification in the ministerial programme after the funeral of the late King and the Crown Prince. These probably will take place February 10.

FRANCO REGIME DISAPPEARS.
The new Cabinet is made up of coalition elements in the hope of reconciling the many disturbing elements. Some of the new ministers have been notably opposed to Franco's iron rule. Not one of the Franco ministers remain, so that his regime disappears with him. The complete Cabinet as now formed follows:

President—Admiral Ferreira do Amaral, succeeding Franco.
Minister of War—Matias Nunes, succeeding V. Pires.
Minister of Justice—José V. Alpoim, succeeding Dr. Abreu.
Minister of Finance—Dom Miguel de Sousa, succeeding A. de Carvalho.

Minister of the Interior—Senhor Francisco de Salazar Veiga, succeeding Franco, who held the portfolio in addition to the presidency of the council.
Minister of Foreign Affairs—Dr. Wenceslao de Sampaio de Lima, succeeding L. Monteiro.
Minister of Public Works—José

Azevedo Castello Branco, succeeding M. Remayo.

Minister of Marine—Antonio Cabral, succeeding V. Pires de Azevedo.

The ministry is entirely reconstructed. The most notable changes are those of the President and of the Minister of Justice, the latter, Senhor Alpoim, having been foremost in opposition to the Franco regime.

After the list of the new Cabinet officers was given out, it was announced that these selections were not final and changes were probable.

The Chamber, which was dissolved by Premier Franco will be reelected on the holding of the regular elections.

WHO THEY ARE.
The new president of the Cabinet, Admiral Ferreira do Amaral, belongs to the famous Ferreira family of Portugal. He has been a conspicuous naval officer for many years and was a long time superintendent of the Lisbon arsenal, and later commander-in-chief of the Portuguese naval forces. He also served as Minister of Marine. He is a member of the so-called Progressist-Disident party.

The Minister of War, José Matias Nunes, is a Progressist. He at one time held the rank of general and was a member of the Chamber of Deputies in 1904. He is also well known as an author.

The Minister of Justice, Dr. José Maria Alpoim de Cerqueira, Borges, commonly called Dr. Alpoim, for many years held the post of Minister of Justice and was a member of the Chamber of Deputies. He is also a member of the Progressist-Disident party.

The Minister of Finance, Dom Miguel de Sousa, is a member of the Progressist-Disident party. He was placed under surveillance by the Lisbon police owing to the plot against the government. He is a member of the House of Peers.

The Minister of Public Works, José D'Azevedo Castello Branco, was at one time the Portuguese Ambassador to Berlin and has served as Governor of Lisbon. He is also a member of the House of Peers.

The Minister of Marine, Antonio Cabral, is a member of the Progressist-Disident party. He was formerly Minister of Foreign Affairs.

POINTS WARNING TO NICHOLAS.
RUSSIAN PAPER DARINGLY COMMENTS ON TRAGEDY.

Czar is Cautioned to Guard Against Assassins in Thinly Veiled Parallel in St. Petersburg Journal Which Cites Similarity of Conditions There and in Portugal.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.) ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 3.—The tragic occurrences at Lisbon have made a deep impression on all sections of society here and the newspapers that appeared today comment freely on the events that occurred.

The Russ in a daring style draws a thinly veiled parallel on conditions in Portugal and Russia, and warns the government in almost as many words that there is danger of a similar event here.

The lamentable and awful tragedy in Portugal, the paper says, was due to the fact that the King did not understand his people, and was attempting to stem by dictatorial methods of repression, the irresistible striving of the masses to take part in the government. The tragedy happened at the very moment when Premier Franco seemingly had succeeded in restoring order by a series of unprecedented repressive measures.

The Novo Yren, although attributing the plot to anarchy, to which all government is obnoxious, also contains the criticism of the dictatorship of Franco, which met with both open and secret resistance from all political parties.

The paper says that Franco proved himself a child in the face of a danger which evidently was known to all sections of society here and the newspapers that appeared today comment freely on the events that occurred.

the Coast, the flagship. She is a new and magnificent vessel. The repairs to the Oregon and Wisconsin, both on the Pacific, are to be rushed. The Idaho, which is being completed, will be rushed to the Pacific by midsummer.

These four vessels can be supplemented before the end of the year by the Mississippi, now completed, and the New Hampshire, practically completed.

This squadron of battle ships will be reinforced by the armored cruisers North Carolina and Montana. There will be the usual auxiliary detail of torpedo boats, torpedo-boat destroyers and colliers.

STILL MORE SHIPS.
It is the plan of the navy board to have the eight ships in the third and fourth divisions of Admiral Evans' fleet remain in the Far East for possibly eighteen months. By that time the United States government will have either finished or nearly finished the following vessels:

Indiana, being modernized; Massachusetts, being modernized; Iowa, being repaired; South Carolina, building; Michigan, building, and the two great Dreadnaughts, the Delaware and the North Dakota.

The fact, as set forth by the Navy Department, is that the United States government intends to maintain in the Far East a fleet which shall be equal in power to any fleet maintained there by any nation with a naval base on those waters.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.) PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 3.—William Jennings Bryan was entertained at luncheon at the Racquet Club here today as the guest of Rolland S. Morris, president of the Pennsylvania Democratic Club. Twenty persons were present.

Before going to the club Mr. Bryan was asked by a reporter whether he was a candidate for the Democratic nomination. Mr. Bryan dictated the following reply:

"If the voters of the Democratic party want another man myself nominated, I will not object. I will accept their delegates to that effect. If they want me they ought to instruct their delegates to that effect."

"It is not a matter to be decided by me or by any small faction of the Democratic party. It is for the majority of the Democratic voters to decide."

In November last to stop the misrepresentation which was being made about as to what I might or might not do and to the conditions under which I might or might not be a candidate, I stated that I would not accept a nomination for the Democratic party that I should be believed that in parties, as in popular government, authority comes up to the official from the people. I believe that voters when they gather themselves on party principles and candidates and then select delegates in harmony with their ideas.

"Instructions are Democratic because the delegate has no authority except as he receives instructions from the voter and the delegate ought to say that which the voters want said."

Mr. Bryan left this afternoon for Reading, Pa.

Business Agent Talks About Buying $4,000,000 of San Francisco's Un-sold Bonds.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.) SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 3.—E. L. Regan, business agent of Machinists' Union No. 68, declared at a meeting of delegates from nearly every labor organization in San Francisco, that as a relief measure the unions stood ready to appropriate $4,000,000 in cash to buy that amount of the city's unsold bonds.

The proposition met with such instant favor that steps were taken for calling a mass meeting of all the employed men in the city to voice a sentiment of approval next Sunday.

Regan asserted that the workers of the city would be helped by the plan to purchase the bonds and that public work may be undertaken and give employment to the men now idle.

Police Believe Arrest in Arizona Will Disclose Organized Enmity Toward Montenegro's Ruler.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.) EL PASO (Tex.) Feb. 3.—In the arrest of Milo Gjonovich, a native of Montenegro, at Globe, Ariz., the postal authorities believe they have discovered a plot against the reigning head of Montenegro, Prince Nicholas.

Gjonovich was arrested for taking from the mails a letter addressed to Dr. Pecos, another Montenegro, and his defense is that he was working in the interest of his government. Several relatives of Pecos have been arrested in their native home in Montenegro lately and it is believed that Gjonovich is responsible.

Complaint has been sworn out against Gjonovich before United States Commissioner Martin of Globe for misappropriation of the mails. Gjonovich has been working at Globe as a miner, but is well educated.

SHINGLE MILLS REOPENED.

The fact that the mills were to open was known to the union men out of a job and a large number of them were congregated about the entrances of the two mills. There was much grumbling and some harsh words applied to the men who were going to work, but the presence of the police prevented any violence.

Re-arrest of Murder Suspect Excites Woman Defendant and Delays the Trial.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Scenes following the death of Webster Garrison were re-enacted in the murder trial of Mrs. Dora McDonald. In the presence of a crowd that packed the room to the doors, witnesses re-enacted in detail all that transpired in Garrison's office from the time a shot was heard until Mrs. McDonald was taken away by policemen.

During the afternoon session Mrs. McDonald was seized with hysteria, prompted by belief that the testimony was going against her.

"I can run this trial better than any of these lawyers," she cried. "There's all testifying against me and you don't ask them the right kind of questions."

EVANS' FLEET WILL VISIT LOS ANGELES.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The attention of the War Department has been called to the fact that captains of two companies of the National Guard have violated the articles of war by announcing that they are leaving for the Pacific Coast on four hours' notice.

Capt. Walkup and Yonts of the two companies of the Eighth Ohio Regiment at Akron, O., yesterday received a telegram from Maj. S. H. Swartz of Cleveland, asking them how long it would take them to board a train for San Francisco with the men under their command. They replied that they could get away on four hours' notice.

Then they told the papers about the telegram they received, and of course, as Japanese spies and their friends are everywhere in the United States, the information was transmitted to Tokio, Japan, and from there back to Washington. It gave Japan a scare.

The War Department will not insist on the punishment of the Ohio captains. It explains the telegram of Maj. Swartz to Capt. Walkup and Yonts as one of the necessities of the present operations to bring the National Guard completely under Federal control.

While War Department officials are loath to be quoted on the subject, they admit that a tremendous force of military volunteers would be available in the Pacific Coast, beginning in April. But further they say nothing. Said a diplomat tonight:

"The United States is preparing for defense. Japan is preparing to attack. There probably is some relation between these two circumstances."

HOUSE STANDS BACK OF THE PRESIDENT.

Will Pass Bills Providing for Everything Contained in Sensational Message and Make Senate Bear Brunt of Defeating Them.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "We will enact the President's recommendations," said Mr. Calkins, speaker of the House, today, "and any man who gets in the way will get run over."

Mr. Calkins, in his words, Col. "Pete" Hepburn, chairman of the House machine, declared the policy of the leaders of the House today and put them on record. They have determined on the plan of passing the President's bills and making the Senate bear the brunt of defeating them. They will not pass any bill if they can avoid it with respect to themselves, but if they find themselves in danger from their constituents they will pass bills providing for everything the President asked for in his sensational message and then let the Senate stand the brunt.

It was a day big with political developments. Senator Newlands started with an interview published in the Washington Post, and Bourke Cockran followed him with a speech in the House. The Republicans had expected of this kind and were prepared for it. After a conference with Speaker Cannon, John D. Long, James P. McPherson, and several other leaders, the attitude of the House machine was determined upon. Mr. Hepburn was selected to deliver the message and the moment he had finished Hepburn rose with the answer to the President's message.

Mr. Calkins' speech, like Newlands' speech, was made with the design of making the Democrats officially on the lines which Bryan had taken. It was a speech appropriate to the Democratic leadership, and it was a message declaring that the House would support the President's message and would not begin to end and showing that the Republican candidate could stand on the platform thus far as Mr. Bryan could.

The speeches of Cockran and Hepburn were listened to by a crowded House, and accepted on both sides as a declaration of party policy so far as the House is concerned.

DEBATE IN HOUSE.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Three of the glories of the House of Representatives had their innings today. Mr. Calkins, the Indian appropriation was under discussion, but legislation was relegated to the background. The national politics occupied the House.

The political question cropped up, with next to the largest attendance of the session, with but one exception, the House of Representatives.

Mr. Calkins, in his speech, declared that the House would support the President's message and would not begin to end and showing that the Republican candidate could stand on the platform thus far as Mr. Bryan could.

steal, did not even surrender control of the corporations they wronged.

"They do not," he continued, "see from justice facing its sword, but they go into a court of justice and obtain its protection to obtain further authority over the very trusts they had betrayed."

Regarding recent bank failures in New York, Mr. Cockran said that not one of them failed through error of judgment. "Every one of them," he said, "was ruined by crime."

He charged that the officers who were being pursued before grand juries and criminal courts actually had set themselves to work to raise funds to reopen the concerns and induce depositors to sanction delay in the payment of their money, "and," he said, "they are treated as saviors of society because they had not blown up the building in addition to pilfering the books."

"It had been asked," continued Mr. Cockran, "why don't the President prosecute these gentlemen?" but he said he noticed, "It was always pointed by those who, if they thought there was any idea of prosecution would engage in public discussion in the newspapers, but would be quietly seeking tickets to foreign lands."

He did not believe the President yet had exhausted all his powers, but he said:

"I do say this message shows the President appreciates his duty."

Loud Republican applause followed this remark.

Mr. Cockran discussed the judiciary of the country, and said he had noticed in his own State, Federal and State judges leaving the bench to accept professional employment by corporations. It was no wonder, he said, that the public conscience should be alarmed. He declared that justice was the foundation of prosperity. It was he said, only the ragged, the rotten and the corrupt that had reason to fear the light of publicity, or the sword of justice.

"TWO CRUSADERS."

Mr. Cockran referred further to President Roosevelt as a crusader, "the only one the Republicans had." But, he said, the President was disqualified. "His nomination by you or a would be personal dishonor." The President had renounced the field of politics and had taken a noble position before the civilized world.

"Never before in the history of the country," he said, "had a President still in office been the object of the bitterest attacks, hated as no hatred ever before was, treasured against a public officer, able while still in office to practically fix the conditions upon which the parties will contend."

Thunderous applause greeted this remark, and one which followed, that there was "a Democratic crusader in Mr. Bryan." Mr. Cockran did not think Speaker Cannon was one, nor was Senator Knox, or Secretary Taft.

Referring to Mr. Bryan, Mr. Cockran said:

"We have a crusader as to whom there is some doubt as to whether he is not too strenuous. I oppose him in the past, I might still oppose him, but I believe this message has outlined the conditions under which he becomes the forerunner of the champion of law and order."

The applause which this utterance evoked among the Democrats was so great that it was some time before Mr. Cockran proceeded.

Continuing, and still referring to Mr. Bryan, Mr. Cockran said that, if he declared himself the champion of the party which for all national and directly embodied in the President's message, "if he represents the determination to prosecute malefactors for their crimes and if a rigorous enforcement of the law should result in the conviction of the criminal courts, then the plunderers of millions will be given precedence in the pathway to prison over the plunders of pennies."

SUPPORT MR. PRESIDENT.

Mr. Hepburn of Iowa declared that the Democrats had shown great versatility in the debate of today. "One," he said, spoke in unseemly terms of the President; another said he could not tell whether the message was by Mr. Roosevelt or by his own political ideal. This message, said Mr. Hepburn, is resolved to some sections of the country with violent condemnation. This condemnation comes from the organs of the very men, and those only, whom the President of the United States has seen fit to denounce as the malefactors, the great malefactors of the age, and that is the only source from which it has come, except from the gentleman from Ohio, referring to Mr. Foraker.

The stock gamblers, he said, have done more than any other class to bring on this disaster, to bring into disrepute the value of our securities. "Some may say there will be nothing done by this Congress. I do not believe it. I assert the American people are earnest in so clothing the hands of executive power so that he may be able to accomplish the reforms advocated in this message, and, if any man stands in the way, he will simply be run over."

Again a wave of uproarious applause swept over the House.

"Some men," said Mr. Hepburn, "complain that the President has not put a larger number of these malefactors in the penitentiary. I know a good many in whose behalf I would like to see his energies doubled, but we must remember that there are difficulties in the way."

He said the Democrats knew the President's message meets the expectations of the people, and on that account they are trying to appropriate all of its provisions.

The House adjourned at 4:55 o'clock.

$2,000,000 to the great exposition. He said the foreign exhibits at the exposition will be confined strictly to the products of nations bordering upon the Pacific Ocean and directly interested in the development of the Pacific trade.

The exposition will, he said, illustrate the wonderful mineral resources of Alaska and will enable the United States to enter into trade relations with Asia and South America and will increase commerce.

DEFENDS ADMINISTRATION.
TALKS PLAINLY TO DEMOCRATS.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—During the consideration of the Indian Appropriation Bill in the House today Mr. Townsend of Michigan delivered a speech in which he rehearsed the history of Republican legislation which, he said, he did for the purpose of "disputing the unwarranted claims of our Democratic brothers."

Mr. Townsend defended the railroad rate law and declared that no single provision in it imposed anything which the very charters of the road did not contemplate. He said that the "man who claims that rate legislation caused the panic or any considerable extent contributed to it begs the question in his desire to justify his opposition to the measure and to discredit an administration favorable to government by law."

CHANCE FOR FUNDS.
TO AID LAND FRAUD CASES.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The appropriation of $48,000, which was asked from the House with which to conduct the trials in the Hyde-Diamond-Benson-Schneider land fraud cases in the courts of the District of Columbia, but which was not allowed to pass that body, will, in the opinion of Chairman Tawney of the House Committee on Appropriations, have no trouble in the Senate where it will be introduced as an amendment to the urgency deficiency bill. In case the Senate should make the appropriation, there is little doubt that the House will concur in the amendment.

TO EXTEND CODE.
CALIFORNIA TO RULE CHINA.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Representative Denby of Michigan, has in course of preparation a bill extending the code of California so as to apply to the jurisdiction of the United States Courts in China. Such legislation would greatly facilitate the hearing of cases appealed to California Federal courts from that country.

Goldfield Report Submitted.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—The President today sent to the House the report of the commission's investigation into the Goldfield labor troubles, in reply to a recent resolution requesting him to do so.

TEST OF SANITY.
EXPERTS AGAIN
EXAMINE THAW.
OBSERVATION OF NOTA-
PRISONER IS MADE.
Talk With Stanford
Visit of Wife Who Is Great-
Witnessed
Mattersman Asylum.
THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.
NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 3.—A renewed observation of the condition of Harry K.
Thaw, confined in Matteawan hospital for the Criminal Insane, today by Dr. Allan W. Farwell, president of the New York State Commission, and Dr. Lamb, president of the institution. The examination was of preliminary character.
The physicians talked casually for half an hour. After that, Dr. Farwell said it was early to give an opinion on Thaw's mental condition. A visit to Thaw's cell was made. Thaw was seen from New York today. It was his first visit to his husband since his arrival at Matteawan and he seemed distressed over the situation in which his husband found himself.
Thaw's family, held several conferences with Thaw during the day. It was here that unless Thaw is improved through the cooperation of authorities within a few months, the Supreme Court.
THAW WITH CHINESE.
NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 3.—[Exclusive.] Harry K. Thaw has two nights in this "house of 1000 and one million voices." It is part of the cost as he was a cot beside Quimbo Appo, a murderer, who slew Paul prince, thirty years ago.
Thaw, an hour or two he was compulsed to listen to the mad ravings of Quimbo, who imagines he is a hundred or two $10,000.
and all that goes with them.
Thaw already been told that he must smoke cigarettes, that he must have money to secure privileges in the asylum and that he must be friendly to the inmates.
Thaw's program which Thaw must follow is as follows:
—March to dining table and eat at a table that seats forty.
—Breakfast consists of bread, butter, oatmeal and milk and hash.
—He may ask permission to do little work that may strike his fancy.
—Dinner, vegetable soup,
steak, bread, pudding; no coffee.
—He may return to his work
any one of the many recensions.
—He will sit down to a menu
listing the food, butter, tea,
and prunes, cold beef.
EVELYN HYSTERICAL.
NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 3.—[Exclusive.] Evelyn Thaw, who lives in the Matteawan Asylum, today said she was hysterical
because of the general release of her husband. Thaw said, he would be a raving maniac if he were released.
Thaw declared she would fear
her sanity if forced to remain in the institution. She had seen the last woman leaving at her verdict.
Thaw had seen a hundred patients while she was waiting on the until all was ready for her with her husband. Through she could see lunatics and in the courtyard, moving in their peculiar ways. One walking backward, another while a third was trying to bite his head.
Mrs. Thaw rushed into the
of Dr. Britton D. Evans, who was waiting with Harry Thaw.
Her arms around her husband, Evelyn begged him to leave from the asylum as quickly as possible. She insisted that it was a great deal of interest in the matter. She was hysterical
because of the general release, and there she collapsed.
SMALLPOX IS EPIDEMIC.
Thousands Cases of Disease
in New York City Since End of December.
THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.
NEW YORK, N. C., Feb. 3.—The epidemic of smallpox in New York, is increasing alarmingly, and is now spreading to the suburbs. The health department today reported that the outbreak at the end of December has been over 2000 cases. A special meeting of the Health Board today authorized a special corps of police to be organized to make house to house visits.
A number of old women professing to be smallpox victims and were being arrested. The death

WOULD PREACH TRUTH.
Thawman in Which Pastor Asks
for Two Years' Silence Congregation.
NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—[Exclusive.] Staunch church members today awoke this morning after a sermon by the Rev. William Thawman, pastor of the First Reformed church, one of the largest in the city. The minister had made the audience that he would ask the audience to "suspend" their truth for two years as a penalty.
Thawman had reached the conclusion that the Bible was not "a solid truth."
The minister said, "If I had known as early as I did today I never would have been in the pulpit, but now
I am here, I will fight for freedom."
THAW WINS AGAIN.
NEW YORK, N. J., Feb. 3.—The Republican Central Committee today announced the so-called Baker plan, which is friendly to Secretary of the controlling party affairs in the county (Cleveland).

PILES
Quickly Cured!
Pyramid Pile Cure Positively a Marvel of Quick Curing Power. Send for a Free Trial Package Today.
We want every man and woman suffering from the excruciating torture of piles to just send their name and address to us and get by return mail a free trial package of the most effective and positive cure ever known for this disease, Pyramid Pile Cure.
As an example, Emma Bodenhamer of Bedford, Indiana, was in constant agonies for 23 years. Three 50-cent boxes of Pyramid Pile Cure cured her.
And George Bransburgh of Schellburg, Pa., cured his 14-year piles with only one 50-cent box.
The way to prove what this great remedy will do in your own case is to just send your name and address to us and you will get by return mail a free trial treatment of Pyramid Pile Cure.
Then after you have proven to yourself what it can do, you will go to the druggist and get a 50-cent box.
Don't undergo an operation. Operations are rarely a success and often lead to terrible consequences. Pyramid Pile Cure reduces all inflammation, makes congestion, irritation, itching, sores and ulcers disappear—and the piles simply quit.
Send your name and address today
for this free trial treatment to Pyramid Drug Co., 137 Pyramid Building, Marshall, Mich.
On sale at all drug stores at 50 cents a box.

TO BUILD CHALLENGER.
Santa Barbara Yachtmen to Organize and Go After Regatta Honors Next Summer.
SANTA BARBARA, Feb. 3.—Aquatic enthusiasts are intent upon organizing a yacht club here. A meeting is to be held Wednesday when it is expected to bring a movement to organize and begin forth, by popular subscription.
If not otherwise, a yacht club will compete for the laurels of E. M. Squier's Valkyrie, of the South Coast Yacht Club.
The Valkyrie in the regatta held in the Santa Barbara channel, last summer, won the arbitrary handicap event the trophy for which was provided by the Santa Barbara Chamber of Commerce. Under the terms of the contest, the boat is required to fulfill a race with any competitor who seeks it and it is likely that the Santa Barbara Yacht Club, soon to be formed in fact, will go after this one prize first.
The magnificent channel here forms a splendid yachting course, with the islands in the offing to give camping and cruising opportunities. The water is deep and blue and under the protection of the islands thirty miles off this shore, so that, unless the wind is from the southeast and blowing a gale, there is no real bad weather in the channel.
The temporary organization here had for its chairman James D. Lowrey, paying teller of the First National Bank; and Don Leach, secretary, who is well-known as a yachtsman and captain of yachts. Don Leach has sailed in many of the regattas of the South Coast Yacht Club and was prominent in the races here last summer. He also has designed and built many of the sailing pleasure craft plying in these waters and is in every way an ardent sailor. It is expected that Wednesday evening's meeting will result in permanent organization and the outlining of plans for the new club.

CHAMPIONSHIP GYM CONTEST.
Polytechnic and Los Angeles High to Meet in Annual Event This Afternoon.
The Los Angeles and Polytechnic High schools will meet this afternoon in a championship gymnasium contest in the Los Angeles High School auditorium. The meet is expected to be close, as both teams will be on hand in full force, and all the men are in good condition.
John Macready, Bruce Carter and Tom Cohn will make a hard fight for first place on the Los Angeles team.
They are all good men, and it is hard to pick the dinner. Poly will be represented by Clarence Bean, Edwin Bly, John Burke, Leonard Lindsey and Grove Adams. Bean defeated Bly for first place in the Throp meet by a very small margin, and they should make a pretty contest this afternoon.
A great deal of interest is centered in this meet, as Poly now holds the State championship, and the Los Angeles boys will do all they can to win
it. The winning team will probably make a tour of the State again this year, as was done last winter.

TAKE UP HANDBALL.
Tournament at St. Vincent's Begins and Medals Are to Be Given the Winners.
A handball tournament for medals is the latest addition to the list of sports
at St. Vincent's. Physical Director Moore will have charge of the affair and expects to hold the first matches on Thursday. The contests will be held in the gymnasium, which, on account of its width, will necessarily make all the matches doubles.
As yet it has not been decided upon whether to hold interclass games and play for the championship of the school or to allow each man to choose his own team-mate. Provided the latter course is followed it will greatly lengthen the schedule.
Many of the younger Saints have taken to the game as the older boys have to baseball and show considerable skill on the alleys. Among those who will make a strong bid for first honors are O'Wasson, Dase, Tabarrondo, Lamar, Murray and the Glavin brothers.
When these pairs get together some fast games should result.

2000 Pairs Sample
Hosiery to sell at 25c pair. We repeat it. One of the greatest stocking events that has been introduced into Los Angeles in many a day. Stockings for women. Fancy sox for men. Not a pair worth less than 50c. Every pair 25c.
Stockings—allover lace or just lace on the foot.
Stockings of embroidered lisle, or in fancy stripes and plaids.
Desirable patterns every one, and so many colors. And all at 25c.
It's a sale that shows the result and value of careful planning, such as governs Bullock merchandising—the importance of grasping opportunities when they present themselves. When you see the values you will understand why we have given them great table space in Section E, Main Floor, and such generous publicity as we have given them here and in our windows. We may have to limit quantities. Buying begins sharp at 8 a. m.
A real sale that will set a new standard. The stockings are all desirable and equally unusual are the values for men and the values for women. No matter what your tastes may be, you are interested.

The First and Only Store in Los Angeles Devoted Exclusively to Office Filing Equipment is The "Y and E" Store
at 420-22 South Broadway
THIS new "Y and E" store carries, of course, exclusively "Y and E" products—which means that it is stocked with the most complete and efficient outfit of Office Filing Equipment in the world.
The business does not exist in Los Angeles (nor anywhere else) for which there is not a specific "Y and E" filing appliance. As you will find when you pay a visit to the "Y and E" store, the key-note of "Y and E" perfection is specific and definite application to the peculiar needs of each and every department in a well-equipped modern office. There are, for instance, no less than 121 different Record Filing Cabinets in the "Y and E" line. Of these 63 are of "Y and E" SECTIONAL construction. In all 17 separate Filing Methods are utilized—every method with its well grounded reason for existence, and succeeding solely because of its practical and successful applications to specific needs.
N.O. matter what may be your business, nor what your office or position may be in that business, you will find it immensely worth your while to pay us a visit to this "Y and E" store of specialized filing systems.
If you have been used to running or working in an office with filing equipment dating from some years back you will be amazed at the new
"Y and E" time and labor-saving devices here shown.
If your office is equipped up to the minute with anything but "Y and E" goods, we must say with all deference that you will still find more than enough that is valuable in the way of specific filing devices to more than repay you for the time you may spend.
And please take particular note of this one thing: You will not be importuned to buy.
That is not a part of the "Y and E" "system."

THE CITY IN BRIEF

AQUEDUCT BONDS FOR SALE

GIVE ME A BOND!

Good work for the unemployed "cush."

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Postal Receipts Growing.

Postal receipts at the main postoffice during the month of January were $3,125.12, an increase of $2,348.55 over the corresponding month of last year.

On petition of the required number of heads of families the Supervisors yesterday created the Palo Alto school district, formed from a part of the Arcadia city school district.

Break Thieves.

Mrs. James McKenna, of No. 309 South Hill street, reported yesterday that sneak thieves had entered her home during her absence and had taken cash and jewelry valued at several hundred dollars.

Camp Banquet.

The ninth anniversary of the Philippine Insurrection will be remembered by Camp Corregidor, Army of the Philippines, at a banquet to be given tonight at its hall, No. 517 South Broadway.

Kentucky Evangelist.

Dr. Robert McIntyre, pastor of the First Methodist Church, has arranged for a fifteen-day series of revival meetings in his church, under the leadership of Evangelist Morrison of Kentucky. The first meeting will be held on February 23.

Small Haul.

Burglars ransacked the residence of E. Marshall, No. 225 South Burlington avenue, last night, and secured $2.46. They destroyed two pieces of furniture by breaking open locked drawers. Mr. Marshall and his family were at the theater and did not discover that their home had been entered until they returned.

Accused of Perjury.

William H. Nutcher, of Redondo, who is accused of perjury in connection with his bankruptcy petition, will be given a preliminary examination before United States Commissioner Van Dyke today. At the time he filed his schedule, he swore that his assets amounted to $15. Since then, creditors assert, assets in excess of $100 have been discovered.

Going Fast.

Fifty tickets to the Chamber of Commerce annual banquet on the 22nd inst. were sold before 10 o'clock yesterday morning, the first day of the sale. The total is limited to 500. "Tom" Richardson, manager of the Commercial Club of Portland, and widely known on the Coast as the "great promoter of the Northwest," wired Secretary Virginia for a ticket, saying he would be at the banquet to absorb boosting gospel.

Burial of John Wigmore.

The funeral of the late John Wigmore, who died in this city on Saturday, was held at St. Paul's Cathedral yesterday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. J. J. Wilson, rector of St. Paul's parish, of which Mr. Wigmore was an official member for many years. The funeral was attended by a great number of friends and acquaintances, and interment was at Evergreen Cemetery.

Tourist Barometer.

Twenty-three hundred persons visited the Chamber of Commerce exhibit Saturday, according to a report made yesterday by the Chamber. The exhibit has been doubled in size and yesterday Mrs. Francis Headie began her illustrated talks on Alaska, Washington and Oregon, the latest addition to the already large programme of the "Wiggins lyceum."

Charged With Murder.

Following the hearing of testimony in the inquest over the body of Emilio d'Amato, an Italian, killed several days ago by Constable Borel, a verdict charging Borel with murder. He will be arraigned in Police court today. The killing of d'Amato is alleged to have grown out of jealousy between the men. Borel, now in Italy, is said to have been the cause of the trouble.

Inquest Goes Over.

The inquest into the death of Constable B. C. Carr, shot by a drunken man, killed several days ago in a collision between his car and a Salt Lake freight train, was postponed until Thursday. Coroner Hartwell said yesterday that he would make a complete investigation into the cause of the accident. Prosecuting Attorney Fleming will appear at the inquest and superintend the cross-examination of the witnesses.

County Fires.

County Fire Warden W. B. Morgan, in his annual report filed with the Supervisors yesterday, reports that there were twenty-six mountain and foothill fires in Los Angeles county last year, which were fought by his department. Fifty-five hundred acres were affected. The total spent in fighting fires was $418.48. There were twelve prosecutions and eight convictions of persons accused of carelessness in starting the fires. Fines amounting to $250 were collected.

Fireman Fined.

W. J. Anderson, a member of engine company No. 10, was fined $20 or twenty days in jail by Justice Rose yesterday, after pleading guilty to a charge of turning in two false alarms. Anderson was arrested by Special Officer Jack Hendrickson. The fireman stated that he had been drinking and had no recollection of turning in the alarm. In both instances the fire company responded. Anderson paid the fine and was released.

Druggists and Law.

The Owl Drug Company closed both stores Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock, and called all its employees together to discuss the new food and drug law, which recently went into effect. The Owl Drug Company believes that this law is not only a burden for the public generally, but will eventually work for the good of the druggists themselves. The meeting Sunday was to enable the employees to become thoroughly familiar with its requirements. Between fifty and sixty people were present.

DYING MAN VICTIM OF AWFUL CONDITIONS AT JAIL.

German Watchmaker Who Shot Himself Regains Consciousness Just Before Death to Hear Frenzied Shrieks of Maniacs Strapped to Cots in Crowded Quarters.

With the shrieks of maniacs ringing in his ears, Reinhard Ziegler, a German watchmaker, who yesterday morning shot himself in the head, died in the afternoon at the Receiving Hospital.

The crowded conditions of the City Jail and the system of keeping maniacs in the Receiving Hospital until called for made the man's death a most horrible one and police commissioners who happened to be in the hospital shuddered and hurried away.

The crazy men had been arrested during the night and were in the hospital screaming most of the day. In the afternoon, just before his death, Ziegler regained consciousness. He looked about him, and he heard the shrieks of the men in the adjoining bays. He covered his eyes with his hands and sobbed.

Ziegler arrived in Los Angeles about three months ago. He took apartment in a small rooming-house at No. 115 South Bunker Hill avenue. He was from Cape Town, South Africa. According to his friends in his rooming-house he had been a prosperous watchmaker in Hamburg, Germany, and later in South Africa. He was well respected and had a little money, but he could secure no work in Los Angeles. He attempted to find one place another trying to get work at his trade and then offered himself as a common laborer. He worked several days on the street and again was thrown out of employment.

His little savings gradually disappeared. His rent was due Monday, and he had no money to pay it. Step by step he felt that his mind was losing its grip. His statements to fellow-boarders told only too well that the man was losing his mind. He was a very special at $2.50.

Plant an Orange Grove

And Make Money

AT MONTE VISTA

Planting an orange grove at Monte

Vista is just like planting pennies for dollar crops. You know the soil is the best. Valuable groves on four sides of it prove it. You know that there is a double head of water piped to each acre. You know that the property was in the hands of an estate for many years and is now being placed on the market at prices of five years ago.

You see that the Southern Pacific and the Salt Lake Railroad are there, and the electric line is coming. You see that it is only half a mile to banks, churches, stores, and one block from school. You see that the only difference between the five or ten acres

you buy at Monte Vista and the land adjoining it on four sides, is the trees that are on it. You know that if orange trees can jump values from $25 an acre to $100 or $150 an acre,

there is no better, safer, surer or more profitable farm or investment possible to find. You can see these things for yourself.

"No Skim Milk for Me,"

Says Uncle Silas when he comes to town. "You can't fool me; I know what real milk is."

But when Uncle Silas' wife skips her breakfast, hurries downtown to get some of "that $1 dress goods for 50c"—only to find later Better Fabrics of the same kind in Coulter's selling regularly for 50c—she buys skim milk under another name.

When Uncle Silas himself picks a fine looking shirt out of a window, pays $1.25 for it, and finds here later a better shirt for $1, he is buying skim milk, and a short quart at that! These are not fanciful stories. Such things are happening every day, and people are beginning to know it. It is not what you pay, but what you get, that counts.

NEW IDEAS IN SENIOR B DAY.

OLD TIMERS TO BE FEATURED AT TOMORROW'S EVENT.

No Play Will Be Given, but There Will Be Treats of Many Kinds for the High School Pupils of These and Other Years—Former Graduates Now Prominent Will Assist.

Senior B day at the Los Angeles High School will present a decided change of program this year. No play will be given, but a number of unusual features have been arranged, which will present a sort of love feast for the schoolhouse on the hill, in which former graduates who have attained prominence in the life of the city will have part.

The Star and Crescent Society will meet in the new High School auditorium at 1:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, the officers being Wesley Howard, president; Maude Brinkman, vice-president; Lorita Rouse, secretary, and Stanley Pratt, treasurer. After a session by the orchestra, the present will give the call to order, the minutes will be read, and Principal W. H. Hough will make a few remarks. After a number by the Boys' Glee Club, Henry W. O'Neil, '73, will deliver an address on "The Pioneer Class."

The past of the Star and Crescent Society will be handled by Mayor A. C. Harper, '36, and Charles Miller, '37, will tell of its future. A vocal solo, "Angus McDonald," will be sung by H. S. Williams, '38, and Russ Avery, '39, will then talk on "The Old Order Changeth." A Star and Crescent Pin will be read by Miss Neeta Marquis, '38, and a vocal solo will be given by Miss Reba Smith, '38.

"The High School as a Factor in Good Citizenship" will be discussed by City Attorney L. R. Hewitt, '38, and "The High School as a Factor in Our City's Prosperity," will be handled by N. G. Bisco, '38. After a selection by the Girls' Glee Club, Miss Mary Fay, '37, will discuss "Our Alumni," and Marshall Stinson, '38, will deliver a "Bon Voyage" for the future. Miss Elsie Bahym, will close the first part of the program with a reading.

The second part will include the presentation of pins to the new graduates, with an address by Claude Brown, president, summer, '38. Response will be made by J. L. B. Beman, president of the winter class. Senior B class songs will complete the afternoon.

WINTER WISDOM

AS APPLIED TO CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY

HOW COLDS ARE CONTRACTED AND PROPER TREATMENT

A cold is always the result of undue exposure to low temperatures. The rapid cooling of the surface, when not balanced by proper reaction, produces congestion and inflammation of the nasal and bronchial membranes. Obviously, such an ailment is not communicable, in the ordinary sense, from one individual to another. As the slightest "cold" predisposes the individual to attacks of the most severe and dangerous catarrhal affections, the necessity for its quick cure need not be enforced. The fact is emphasized by the necessity of extra precautions against the ordinary cold. Everyone cannot change his climate at will, but he may take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the first indication of the cold appears. It not only cures a cold quickly, but counteracts any tendency of the cold to result in pneumonia. This fact has been fully proven during the epidemics of colds and influenza of the past few years. No case of either of these diseases having resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used has ever been reported to the manufacturers, and thousands of bottles of it are sold every day. This shows conclusively that it is not only the best and quickest cure for colds, but a certain preventive of that dangerous disease, pneumonia.

THE CHILD'S LIFE AND DANGERS THAT THREATEN

The worst danger to which the children of America are exposed is the neglected cold. If your baby has a cold, don't say, "It will wear off," and let it go at that. If your children have the sniffles, or sore throats, or watery eyes, don't hesitate to take them from school for a day or two so that you may break up the colds they have. Every parent can add to the healthy condition of the family and to his or her own peace of mind by guarding against any and every kind of cold. Generally, the child does not know how it caught cold. It may be impossible to prevent it exposing its sensitive body to those dangers which older persons shun. But the chances of contracting colds can be easily diminished by a little care and forethought. If the children get colds, don't waste any time. Don't trifle with a cold. This warning should be heeded by all. The lives of many children are sacrificed each year by neglecting the colds which they take; others contract chronic catarrh, from which they never fully recover. Of all the cough medicines sold, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy certainly heads the list as the most efficacious for colds, croup, and whooping cough in children, and the one remedy that can always be depended upon to effect a speedy cure, and that is pleasant and safe to take. This remedy contains no opium or other harmful drug, and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. Its great worth and merit in the treatment of these diseases has been attested by many thousands of mothers.

CHILD'S NEGLECTED COLD AND THE RESULT

Colds are the special bane of childhood, and often lay the foundation for the more serious diseases of after-life. One child catches cold, and scours its mother into hysterics by having croup in the dead of night. Another child catches cold, and before it has fully recovered from it, takes another cold, and perhaps before that is over contracts a fresh one. This succession of colds, or even the neglect of a common cold, causes the inflammation of the mucous membrane, which was at first acute, to become chronic, and the doctor will tell you that the child has chronic catarrh, from which it will never fully recover. Another child catches cold. Little attention is paid to it, as the child has often had colds, and always recovered from them; but in this instance a stubborn cough is developed. The parents are filled with forebodings. Still another child catches cold, and could easily have been cured by proper treatment, but, being neglected, develops the most fatal malady of childhood, pneumonia. The doctor is called, and pronounces it lung fever, and if the child is lucky enough to live, it has developed weak lungs, making it susceptible to all lung diseases. Every one of these children could have been cured by the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. A few doses of it, and the child's cold is gone. It counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia, quickly dispelling all fear of that dangerous disease. It is also a certain cure for croup, and has never been known to fail. When given as soon as the croupy cough appears it will prevent the attack. A medicine of such great worth and merit as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy should be kept in every house where there are young children. Don't wait till the child is sick, and then have to send for it, but keep it on hand, ready for instant use when needed.

BABY'S COLD CURED BY CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY

Mrs. David Matley of Aberystwyth, Ont., says, "My baby was sick for four or five weeks with a severe cold on the chest and I thought he would die. I tried different remedies but with no beneficial results, until I
